Mrs. Clara Legrand of 206 East Center st. says: "I have had no backache nor kidney trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured them from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store several months ago and after using them I was not loaded down with languor and depression and did not have the attacks of headache which formerly made me so miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy and I recommend them to others without hesitation."

Mr. John Schumaker of 204 Holloway st., employed at the Goodrich Rubber works, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills procured from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store on South Howard st., proved just the remedy I needed for trouble in my back and kidneys. My work requires me to assume a bent position at times, which was very hard on my back and affected my kidneys, causing a bad feeling in my head and dizziness. The use of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the pain in my back, strengthened the kidneys, removed the dizziness and bad feeling in my head and braced me up in every way."

WATER ST.

Mr. G. W. Miller, 608 1/2 Water st., employed in the Akron Knife Works, says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at John Lamparter & Co.'s drug store and took a course of the treatment. CUYAHOGA ST.

Mrs. Chas. F. Roepke, of 312 Cuyahoga st., says: "I know well the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills as I have taken several boxes and I never had any medicine or prescription do me so much good. A course of treatment with Doan's Kidney Pills which we procured from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store strengthened my kidneys, banished the backache and prevented the languor and depression which I always felt mornings. TRIBUTE

Paid by Judge Kohler

To Record of Ex-Prosecutor Wanamaker.

Reviewed Several Important Instances of the Past Six Years.

The remarks of Judge Kohler, Monday, on the occasion of the retirement from office of Mr. R. M. Wanamaker, for six years, County Prosecutor, were especially eloquent and earnest, showing a very kindly feeling to have existed between the court and the Prosecutor. Among other things, he said: "The six years through which you have passed have been memorable ones. Much has been crowded in them; much of the tragedy and the comedy of real life you have seen displayed here in this forum of justice, the trials, the temptations and transgressions of men, their weaknesses, their joys, their pleasures, their woes, their ambitions, malice, hatred, ill-will; and much, on the other hand, that was good and noble and brave, and courageous and generous we have seen displayed here, not on a fictitious stage, but in the great drama of real life. And these you will carry with you in the years to come, and, doubtless, it will come up to you many times and bring you the pleasures and the pains of memory."

"Very soon after you were inducted into this office, and while you were still comparatively inexperienced, there came that dreadful tragedy and triple homicide in Tallmadge. I well remember the energy with which you tried and endeavored, successfully, to ascertain who the criminal was, and after an arduous trial here in court the criminal was brought to justice."

"Very soon after that occurred that dark, terrible tragedy in the peaceable hamlet of Richfield--all the more horrible because of the mystery that seemed to surround it, and yet you succeeded in tracing up the circumstantial evidence, and so clearly presenting it to the jury that conviction speedily followed.

"But more important, I think, than all else were your unremitting labors and your skill in bringing to justice those who were engaged in the dreadful riot which took place in this city in August, 1900--a crime so startling that it attracted the attention not only of the State, but of the entire country. You entered into that work with great skill and with great energy, and so systematically that forty or more of the chief criminals were indicted, prosecuted and convicted; and your work in that direction will go far, I think, towards making life and property secure, in teaching respect for law and its administration in the courts of justice, and furnishing an example that men cannot throw down the barriers and take the law into their own hands for the purpose of wreaking revenge upon those who are suspected, or who are even guilty, of crime."

"I have instanced only a few things that have occurred during these six memorable years, and now, in putting off the harness, your friends, I think, may make the boast for you, that you have elevated and dignified the office by a courteous, conscientious and efficient discharge of your public duties, and your friends congratulate you, to which, if you please, I desire to add the congratulations of the Court."

Chicago Is Like Hades, But She Likes Mush.

Chicago, Jan. 8.--The vulgarizing of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the English actress, deplored in advance by a London dramatic critic, has begun here, and Pinky Panky Poo is sharing in the deterioration. The dreadful noises are doing it. She characterizes as horrible the "bells ringing, whistles tooting, vans galloping, newsboys shouting and elevated trains crashing." Her strongest conception of Hades seems more comfortable than "this awful Chicago." But the actress finds comfort in the fact that both she and Pinky Panky Poo find the cornmeal mush here lovely, better than at home, even. She says all women should eat mush.

Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford st. M. E.
